CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: GLOBAL POLITICS SUMMER SCHOOL TURKEY

“REGIONAL FAULT LINES
TURKEY AND THE EU ON AN UNCERTAIN PATH”

June 4 – 17, 2012 in Istanbul

ORGANIZED BY
- Sabanci University Istanbul
- Hellenic Foundation for European and Foreign Policy (ELIAMEP) Athens
- Center for Global Politics at Freie Universität Berlin

CURRICULUM
This intensive short-term program will provide students with an insight into German, Turkish and Greek perspectives on regional transformations and tensions. The modules will touch upon new approaches to global politics, the role of (new) media in politics and current developments in the EU, Turkey and close-by areas. The exchange of views and ideas will equally include input from German, Turkish and Greek academics and students.

ADMISSION
Apply online until April 13, 2012 via:
https://www2.oei.fu-berlin.de/global-politics/turkey/appsys/start/

There are no tuition fees for the Summer School. Participants are responsible for their travel and living expenses. Travel stipends are available to participants travelling from Greece and Turkey (outside Istanbul).

For more information, visit our website www.seasonal-school.org or contact us directly:

CONTACT
Luise Rex (Program Coordinator) Prof. Dr. Meltem Müftüler-Baç (Local Coordinator)
Center for Global Politics Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences
Freie Universität Berlin Sabanci University
Email: seasonal-schools@global-politics.org Email: muftuler@sabanciuniv.edu

Generous funding for this program is provided by the German Academic Exchange Service.